Lazy Salon is producer & multi-instrumentalist Sean Byrne, in a former life the primary writer in pop-folk duo The Twin Atlas and drummer for Philadelphia bands Lenola, Mazarin, BC Camplight and others.

Now residing near the pinelands of south-central New Jersey, Byrne crafts atmospheric instrumentals as Lazy Salon, bringing together influences ranging from electronic, dub, pop, live & processed performance elements, rhythmic and international sounds new & old.

The 'Trisset' EP comes hot on the heels of March 2017's Lazy Salon debut full-length 'Invisible Like Peace' (which also coincided with a one-off guest DJ slot on NTS Radio UK for the 'Infinity Landscaping' mix), evolving that album's sound & vision further towards?
