LAZY SALON – ‘LAZY SALON’:

Progressive instrumentals over-saturated in rhythm, melody and texture. All-purpose head music mixing electronics & organics. Catchy hypnotism, suburban Kosmiche, blissed psych, momentum drumming, undercurrents of mid-fi ambience and infinity horizons.

Lazy Salon is producer & multi-instrumentalist Sean Byrne, in a former life the primary writer in the dream-pop-folk duo The Twin Atlas and drummer for Philadelphia bands Lenola, Mazarin, BC Camplight and others.

After a clutch of EPs as Lazy Salon, Byrne released the debut full-length ‘Invisible Like Peace’ in spring 2017, alongside a guest mix on London’s NTS radio.

Summer 2018 saw the release of the ‘Boot Magna’ project, consisting of two seamless 20-minute mix sets comprised of remixes & unreleased materials.
